

Look around this room. The women you see are significantly less likely to be mid- or late-career, presenting in a higher-prestige role, or to have held a leadership position within ABCT.

Q: Rosemary O. Nelson-Gray was the first woman President of the then Association for Advancement of Behavioral Therapies, serving from 1981-1982. In what year did we have our second female president?

A: 1993

Q: According to members of ABCT, what is the most prestigious conference role? What proportion of 2018 presenters in this role were women?

A: Invited Speaker
50%

Q: According to the same sample, what is the least prestigious conference role? What proportion of 2018 presenters in this role were women?

A: Poster Author
78%

Twenty Years of Women's Representation at the Annual Meetings of the Association for Behavioral & Cognitive Therapies

Emily S. Redler,¹ Maria Rojas,¹
Isabella K. Pallotto,^{1,2} & Laura E. Sockol¹

¹ Davidson College

² University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Want to learn more?

Download our paper using this QR code,
or email lasockol@davidson.edu

DAVIDSON